

To whom it may concern:

_____ is employed by _____.
(employee name) (farm name)

Our farm is part of the agricultural sector, an essential service industry as defined by the Government of British Columbia and also part of critical infrastructure as defined by Public Safety Canada.

This employee is travelling for the purpose of arriving at, during and returning home from their seasonal agricultural employment in the Okanagan region of British Columbia. This employee is exempt from COVID-19 travel restrictions during travel to perform their agricultural job.

This employee has been instructed to abide by all current and local orders and guidelines related to COVID-19 prevention during their travel and has verified a safe travel plan with their employer.

Please direct all questions to _____ at _____ (company representative) (representative contact information)

Sincerely,

(Signature)

(Date)

Okanagan Valley harvest extends from June to November, 2021.

Agricultural labour is an essential service industry as defined by the Government of British Columbia.

(<https://www2.gov.bc.ca/gov/content/covid-19/info/essential-services#food>).

The Agricultural sector is classified as critical infrastructure by Public Safety Canada.

(<https://www.publicsafety.gc.ca/cnt/ntnl-scrtr/crtcl-nfrstrctr/esf-sfe-en.aspx>)