BCFGA Golden Jubilee Bursary 2020-2021 School Year

Application Details

The $1,000 BCFGAs Golden Jubilee bursary is normally awarded to a student who is enrolled in their second or subsequent year of study in a Science program. Students enrolled in first year are also eligible. Preference will be given to students who are in an agricultural program or a specific program of study related to tree fruits.

Applicants must be enrolled in a recognized institution of higher learning including: a college, university, technical school or agricultural college.

The application deadline is October 30, 2020.

Deliver completed applications by email to info@bcfga.com, or by regular mail to the BCFGAs office, 880 Vaughan Ave, Kelowna, BC V1Y 7E4, or fax to 250-861-9089.

- The student must be a child of a BCFGAs member in good standing.
- Applicants will be judged on academic excellence, related agricultural or science work experience, and chosen program.
- All applicants will be informed of the decision of the Selection Committee.

The Golden Jubilee Bursary was established in celebration of the 100th anniversary of the BCFGAs in 1989.

The BCFGAs may decide not to award the bursary in a year. The BCFGAs may decide to split the bursary between two or more applicants.

Application Requirements

1. Copy of most recent final grades.
2. Completed application form.
